Bramble's back and he's brought his friends too!

Bramble agreed to meet his friends at the Help Point, but he's not turned up... Help Derek the Donkey, Bonnie the Bunny and Lola the Lamb search for Bramble so they can enjoy their trip!

Please hand completed forms into the Help Point (96 Church Walk) to collect a reward and be entered into the prize draw.
Contact information is purely for the use of entry to the competition and will be destroyed once the winners have been picked.

1. Derek the Donkey turned left out of the Help Point and remembered that he needed to look for some curtain fabric for his mum.

2. Lola the Lamb went further up to Church Road and stopped to shop for some charity shop bargains.

3. Bonnie the Bunny wanted to look for some flowers to give to Bramble when she finally found him!

4. Derek was thinking of buying something sparkly for his partner, so he popped into the jewellers...

5. Lola was going to be a bridesmaid at her friend's wedding, so she stopped to look for a dress.

6. Bonnie loved Burgess Hill and wanted to look for a place to live, so she stopped at an estate agent on Keymer Road.

7. Lola loved Bonnie's flowers and wanted to look for some to match her dress so carefully crossed the road to Keymer Parade.

8. Derek dropped his glasses on the floor and needed to get a new pair - and quick!

9. The animals went back down the hill past the train station and decided to look at more houses in a nearby lettings agent.

10. Her back hurting after their long walk, Lola popped in to see a physiotherapist on Church Road.

11. Bonnie wanted a quicker way around town, so decided to look for a bicycle on Cyprus Road.
